

XIII International Rice Conference for Latin America and the Caribbean

Shoichi Ito
Speaker

Topic:

"How is the global sushi boom influencing the japonica rice markets in the world?"

Ph.D. in Agricultural Economics.

Full Professor at the Laboratory of Food and Agricultural Policies, Graduate School and Faculty of Agriculture, Kyushu University, Japan. His research focus on US and global rice policies and trade. International field surveys have been the major sources of his research having won several research grants such as Grants-in-aid for Scientific Research from the Ministry of Education, Japan, for interdisciplinary studies on global japonica rice situations since 1990. Served as the Editor in Chief of an English journal Japanese Journal of Rural Economics during 2012-14. Putting various kinds of international prices of the major grains and soybeans as well as about 250 individual countries' supply/demand data and graphs for many agricultural products on the website during the last two decades.

<http://bit.ly/2CcfVH7>

May 15-18, 2018 - Piura, Perú